

Dear Madam/ Sir;

I suspect you'll find very few candidates with a background such as mine - and it's one I'd like to put to work on your behalf.

As you'll see on the enclosed cv, the depth of my experience in ICT major offers you the opportunity to hire a real pro who needs little or no training and who is comfortable and successful with cold canvassing.

A personal interview would allow me to demonstrate my talents. I look forward to hearing from you so that we can schedule a meeting.

Kindly find my CV enclosed

Yours Sincerely,
Nimer El-Sayed
